Advancing Sustainable Development in an Era of Housing Growth

Thursday, May 9 | 5:30 - 7 P.M.
Location: CEC's Environmental Hub
1219 State Street, Santa Barbara CA 93101

The County of Santa Barbara and its incorporated cities are making plans for the construction of nearly 15,000 housing units on the South Coast over the next eight years. Join us for a thought-provoking panel discussion on advancing sustainable development in an era of unprecedented housing growth. Learn more about the challenges such significant growth poses to advancing goals for sustainable development, and hear possible solutions that can inform further community discussion.

Introduction by:

Dave Davis, Chair, Board of Directors S.B. Metropolitan Transit District

Panel Moderator:

Dave Durflinger, City Manager of Carpinteria (retired)

Panelists:

Michael Chiacos, Climate Policy Director at Community Environmental Council

Rob Fredericks, Executive Director/CEO at Housing Authority of the City of S.B.
